Sift together the flours and spices Cream together the butter and sugar with the essences. Add the eggs one at a time, beating well after, each addition, then alternately add the fruit and flour mixtures. Mix thoroughly. The mixture should be stiff enough to support a wooden spoon. Place the mixture into a prepared square 20cm x 20cm (8" x 8") tin and bake in a slow oven for approximately 3 ½ - 4 hours. Allow the cake to cool in the tin.

NOTE: To ensure uniformity & depending upon the size it is suggested the raisins be snipped into 2 -3 pieces, cherries into 4-6 pieces and almonds crosswise into 3-4 pieces.

Prize money is sponsored by the Ag Shows NSW . Winners at country shows will each receive a cash prize of $25 and will be required to bake a second "Rich Fruit Cake" in order to compete in a Group Final to be conducted by each of the fourteen Groups of the Agricultural Societies Council of NSW. The fourteen winners at Group level will each receive a cash prize of $50 and are required to bake a third "Rich Fruit Cake" for the Final judging at the Royal Easter Show where the winner will receive a cash prize of $100.00.

Note: In any year an individual competitor may participate in only one Group Final representing a Show Society and, consequently, may represent only one Group

Bangalow winner will be required to have their second cake available for Group Judging in Lismore late November (exact date TBA)

CHAMPION RICH FRUIT CAKE OF THE SHOW –Rosette & $25

40. SHOW COOKERY CHALLENGE – CHOCOLATE & ORANGE MARBLE BUNDT CAKE

185 g (6oz) butter, softened	1 ½ cups caster sugar	3 eggs, room temperature
1 ¾ cups self- raising flour	¼ cup plain flour	¼ cup milk
2 tablespoons cocoa powder	1 tablespoon milk, extra	1 tablespoon icing sugar
1 tablespoon finely grated orange rind	1 tablespoon fresh squeezed orange juice

1: Preheat oven to 180° C . Grease bundt tin with butter and a dusting of cocoa powder, tap out excess cocoa powder.

2: Beat butter and sugar in a small bowl with an electric mixer on medium speed until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs one at a time. Stir in combined sifted flours and milk until just combined.

3. Divide mixture evenly between two medium bowls. Stir sifted cocoa and extra milk into one bowl of mixture. Stir rind and orange juice into second bowl.

4. Spread one third of the chocolate mixture into pan. Level the mixture with the back of spoon. Top with one third of orange mixture. Repeat layering two more times then gently tap the pan on work surface to remove any air pockets.

This process is very similar to making a classic marble cake , however unlike a marble cake we won't be drawing a skewer through the batter to create a marble patter. The natural effects of gravity and heat act upon the batter, causing it to swirl into more subtle shapes that resemble tiger stripes.

5. Bake for 50 mins or until cooked. Leave cake in pan for 5 minutes before turning onto a covered wire rack to cool. Just before serving dust with sifted icing sugar.

“Last Night I Dreamed of Chickens”

by John Prelutsky

Last night I dreamed of chickens,
there were chickens everywhere,
they were standing on my stomach,
they were nesting in my hair,
they were pecking at my pillow,
and hopping on my head,
they were ruffling up their feathers
as they raced about my bed.

They were on the chairs and tables,
they were on the chandeliers,
they were roosting in the corners,
they were clucking in my ears,
there were chickens, chickens, chickens for as far as I could see... when I woke today, I noticed there were eggs on top of me.

Handwrite the following poem on a A3 sheet (portrait orientation) and include illustrations.

The Bangalow Poultry Club

By anonymous

The Bangalow Poultry Club, well, so I've heard is turning 100, a century of bird.

The Poultry Pavilion will show their exhibits
the birds, my oh my, they are truly exquisite.
They're all on display, and it aint down to luck
when the best is rewarded – the ultimate cluck!

A century of bird, some from near, others far once delivered by horse they now come in a car.
Rain, hail or shine our find feathered friends are the stars of The Show and without them it ends.

From the Australorp to Leghorn, Orpington and Wyandotte, this competition, for the faint-hearted, it is not.
Soft-feathered, hard-feathered, breeding pairs or singles, amongst keen competitors, onlookers will mingle.

The prize of all prizes, Grand Champion Bird
(for animals feathered, not those who are furred).
Comb colour, cackling, egg laying and pedigree,
are all qualities the judges will need to agree.

The names of champion breeders past, like Lindsay and Cook,
you will find in Glenda McKenzie's new book,
100 years of Bangalow Poultry,
It's a book of birds' past (and the price is quite paltry).

The Poultry Pavilion, is the place you must go
The next time you visit the Bangalow Show.
Come alone, come in pairs or flock in all together
It's a big Happy Birthday – a century of feather!!
